

TEN THINGS ABOUT HULL

Culture

City of Culture

1

Hull was named the UK's City of Culture in 2017. They celebrated with a massive fireworks display.

Abolishment

2

William Wilberforce who is still a famous Hull son, more than 180 years after his death, led the movement to abolish the slave trade in the British Empire.

Ferens Art Gallery

3

Home to one of the best regional collections of art in the country as well as hosting top-name touring exhibitions, from Da Vinci to Warhol. It is due to reopen on January 13 after a major refurbishment.

The Deep

4

Over a decade after its opened, the self-styled 'submarium' remains the most successful Millennium Project in the UK.

Clive Sullivan

5

Rugby league who played for both Hull FC and Hull KR and was the first black Briton to captain any national representative sporting team

TEN THINGS ABOUT HULL

Culture

Hull Fair

6 Europe's largest travelling funfair tends to divide opinion but you can't miss it once the rides start rocking in Walton Street every October.

Dean Windass

His Wembley goal to send Hull City into the Premier League for the first time will be forever etched on the fans' memories.

7

The Bee Lady

8 Jean Bishop is arguably Hull's most famous woman after winning a Pride of Britain award for her fundraising efforts.

Holy Trinity Church

Much of Hull's history and heritage can be found within the impressive walls of England's largest parish church, which also hosts the brilliant beer festival!

9

Kardomah 94

10 Quirky and intimate, this laid-back restaurant and performance space has quickly established a reputation as one of Hull's leading cultural venues.

